CASTLE RIVER STAMPEDE

A SUCCESSFUL EVENT

The Castle River annual sports held on Wednesday, the 19th of July, at the South Fork Bridge, Burnside Beaver Mines road, drew a crowd of 2500 people, who were treated to a show, which was pronounced by competent judges to be second only to Calgary Stampede. The only committeeman who fell down on his job was Billy Eddy, who had charge of the weather, the dry season had turned the light sandy soil of the track into an enclosing circle of dust, which the lively west wind whirled into clouds, and a thunderstorm, which lasted half an hour, sent everybody scurrying for shelter to cars and brush, but the rain was a blessing in disguise, as it laid the dust.

Hundreds viewed the sports from their cars parked behind the new bumper fence on the bench-land opposite the judges' box and bucking corral. Other hundreds sat on the grassy bank, sloping down from cars to track among whom were picturesque groups of Indians. 500 of the Peigan tribe had camped overnight across the river and a steer was given them for a barbecue. They were keen contestants in many of the sports, including a ball game which they won from Blairmore 8 to 5. A very fine programme was carried out without hitch or halt, between the hours of noon and 7 o'clock. Foot-races first, the chief one being a mile handicap in which Arthur Fourneau, the Pass long distance champion, gave local boys a 1/4-mile start, this proved too generous and a local boy, Joe Motil, won easily.

The horse racing and stampee were preceded by a saddle horse parade in which upwards of a hundred competed. Prizes were given for best horse, best outfit and best looking rider, five young squaws were asked to pick out the best looking rider, and they entered upon their duties with great relish. They chose Ed. Burton and Babe Smith for closer inspection and later some animated discussion and comparison with their standards of masculine beauty finally gave Burton the prize by 3 to 2.

There were prizes given for the best dressed Indian and Squaw. This was of great interest to the Pass people. The highland fling contest, in which several charming little girls competed, was the prettiest event on the card. Mr. McLaane, of Coleman, was the piper (see last week's issue of The Enterprise for details and exact number of gophers that died of heart failure, when the skirl of the pipes awoke the echoes).

There were booths on both sides of the field for the sale of refreshments, coffee was free. People came from all the Pass towns between Passburg and Fernie, and from prairie points as far as Claresholm, and the North Fork joined with the South Fork in patronage and competitions.

Outstanding among all the hard working officials of the club and sports committee, Jimmy Miller deserves the greatest credit for the success of the stampee, as the lion's share of responsibility fell upon him in the preparatory work of securing a sufficient supply of the right kind of horses, steers and wild cows and getting the corrals erected and directing the stampee. Credit is also due to Walt Smith, grounds committee man, for his work in grading the track and getting the new fence built, and to Jack Eddy for his whole-hearted support ever since last winter, when he and his boys got out the corral poles from the bush. Other sports committee men were Wilbur Lang, horse races; Ken McDowell, foot races; Jack Dyer, games; Jack Giola, booths; Messrs. Bruce, senior Dyer, sen., and Albert Oskowski, gate. F. H. Holmes president, W. D. McDowell, organizing secretary.

Judges were: H. Bosenberry, M. L.A., horse races; Bert Connelly, Pete

AND WE HAVE 'EM HERE, TOO:

Who are the two Scotchman, one, whose wife is working, and the other who claims inability to work through doctor's certificate, who voted with the left wing Monday for continuation of unemployed workers strike? It must make the real hardy Scotchman think that there are Scotchmen who can act in such a questionable manner.—Drumheller Review.

THE COWARDLY CATS

James Sloan, of Estevan notoriety, is back in the district, directing Communist activities from a certain shack in Newcastle. Sloan prepares the darts for his dupes to shoot. When there is any trouble brewing or strike threatened, Sloan and the well marked automobile are sure to be in the vicinity. Sloan directs his forces from the rear, and when real trouble gets underway, Sloan is not among those present.—Drumheller Review.

Broad Leveasear, Bucking; F. McLaughlin, saddle horses; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tench, cowboy outfit; Mr. and Mrs. Bot Lang, Indian costume; Mr. and Mrs. BIR Barclay, Highland Fling; Wal Eddy, starter; Joe Johnson, shute steward; Percy Dennis, arena steward.

There were spills and thrills aplenty in the stampee events, but it was never necessary to make a call on the services of Doctor Wakey, or Sergeant Hill, the first aid officer from Coleman. Both of these gentlemen had kindly responded to the club's invitation to be present. Mention should also be made of the good natured and tactful help given by the Blairmore mounties.

Special prizes were donated by Mr. Pete Zoratti, Mr. H. Bosenberry, M. L.A., Messrs. Jackson Bros. and Mr. McRoberts.

Prizes winners were as follows: Horse bucking (saddle)—1st Mike Yagos, 2nd Charlie Yagos. Horse bucking (loose rope)—1st Howard Hassett, 2nd Bill Clark. Best bucking horse—1st C. S. Tench, 2nd J. B. Life Means Change.

Occasionally the writer of this column feels the urge to pass on to the readers of it some thought, an idea, or even complete article he has come across in his own reading. In surrendering to that urge this week, we pass on an article appearing in a little United States magazine which does not go into general circulation, which has no subscription list, but which is distributed free to a selected list of people in all parts of the world. That article follows:

To prepare us for life in a world that is continually changing, that is a very small part of a universe in which nothing is or ever will be static even for the space of one brief second, humanity has been taught, from the earliest dawn of reason, to strive for permanence, security, safety, ease, something which we may accept as settled. Thus we find ourselves mentally and spiritually unprepared to meet the apparently sudden, unexpected changes which follow inevitably upon some wide-spread emergency. Instead of schooling ourselves to meet emergencies in their varied and unpredictable phases, we have preferred to be lulled or to hulk ourselves into a sense of false security, to surround ourselves with an atmosphere of spiritual anesthesia. Instead of taking life as a tremendous adventure—and it is this or nothing—we delude ourselves into the belief that we have made of it something restful, secure, that we have created, in some measure at least, a lasting order of things. And we commit the added absurdity of telling our children that these things are so, when, our whole experience, the experience of all humanity proclaims them to be utterly false.

How different would have been our reactions to the experiences of the last three uncommonly trying years had we been free from the traditional fear of change. And why should we fear change when it is the most certain thing that life brings us? It is the very essence of life; the vital germ of growth; the stimulus toward achievement; the point of far-thing outlook along the road of progress. Change gives life its vitality; lends it sparkle and variety and the lure of glorious adventure; makes it worth living to those who have learned the most precious, most helpful of its secrets. Acceptance of this fact is the one royal way to spiritual freedom, and in spiritual freedom lies the only assurance of surety, of permanence, of safety, of ease to be found in all the range of created things. For only when the spirit is free—free from delusions and superstitions and intolerance, and fears and traditions and narrow prejudices and selfishness—free to venture where it will and when it will, is it prepared to meet, with profit to itself, the ever unexpected possibilities and adventures of life. The accumulation of these spiritual profits is the one sure laying-up of treasure where neither moth nor rust can corrupt, and where thieves cannot break through and steal. It is the one treasure not subject, except in enhancement, to the vicissitudes of life.

The chief thing in living is life itself. The chief purpose in life should be to live it abundantly, joyously, zestfully; to achieve each of its constantly varying phases; to get all we can out of it and to put all we can into it. We should not fear to meet any part of it. We should prepare ourselves for the realities of life, frankly admit them as realities, and reap the fullest possible advantages from them. And if we do this we shall come to the inescapable conclusion that the genuinely desirable advantages of life have little if anything to do with material things.

If we would enjoy life to the full, we must change our traditional attitude toward it. Instead of building upon the illusion of permanency, we must build upon the certainty of change—constant change both within ourselves and in all other created things; physical, mental and spiritual change. For without change life could not exist. To imagine any possible permanency in life, anything static, anything unchanging even for the smallest period of our conception of time, would be to imagine our most fearful and hopeless conception of death. And life knows no death, only change, and continuing life.

There is no thought in anything I have said here that we should not strive intelligently and courageously for some measure of stability, some temporary standard of thought and action, in our material affairs; but that in our thinking, our planning and our striving we never should for a moment lose sight of the realities of life, and that neither permanency nor absolute security is one of them. Our ideas of security, of any settled order of things, should be relative. They should be held loosely and subject to the certainty of change. In other words, we should prepare ourselves for change as for the one sure thing which life offers us. Our accumulation of things, material should be secondary to our accumulations of things spiritual. The insecurity of material accumulations should make us value more highly the security of spiritual accumulations—our experiences, our memories, our generous and friendly impulses, our unselfish and tolerant motives, our whole attitude toward our fellows, our confidence in the eternal beneficence of life, our love of what we do. Our accumulations of things, material, in short, all that our experience has taught us is most to be desired.

Let us then accept life frankly as a glorious adventure, and face it at all times cheerfully and bravely. Let us banish fear, fear of present insecurity, fear to venture because of uncertainty, above all else, fear of change. Let us be constantly prepared for change, ready to take advantage of it rather than to have it take advantage of us. Let us live our lives to the full and go forward cheerfully, bravely, confidently, and with light and hopeful hearts.

Some Birthday Dinner

Peter the Great, three tons of hippopotamus is 30 years old and Bronx zoo officials prepared his four-course birthday dinner. The appetizer was a bushel basket of mangos. In lieu of soup was served a sheaf of young corn stalks. Entree consisted of two loaves of brown raisin bread. And the piece de resistance was Peter's standard dinner, 100 pounds of hay.

Summer Complaint Plays Havoc With the Bowels

Botanists Are Interested

Awaiting News Regarding Discovery Of Musk Plants In B.C.

Botanists everywhere are awaiting eagerly news concerning the musk plants with the long lost odor on Texada Island, B.C.

In connection with the reported discovery by Stanley Boys on Texada Island, on the British Columbia Coast, of a musk plant carrying the distinctive odor common over twenty years ago, but since unknown, Dr. Arthur W. Hill, director of the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, England, is keenly interested.

Dr. Hill has written to Frank Kermod, of the Provincial museum of natural history, Victoria, saying the discovery, if it can be substantiated, is of very great scientific interest. He asks that if possible seed or plants with a strong musk scent may be forwarded to him at Kew, and gives instructions for their safe packing for the journey and outlines special precautions to be taken in forwarding them.

The musk of the odor well remembered by most persons of English upbringing—it was common as a pot plant for houses in England a quarter of a century ago—is said to have been taken to England originally from British Columbia by the famous Douglas whose name is perpetuated in our Douglas fir.

It is given as having originated on the American continent by authorities. It has of commercial value for perfume manufacture years ago and there are commercial possibilities about its rediscovery in British Columbia apart from world-wide scientific interest.

Home For Orphan Boy

Adopted By Wealthy Couple Whose Dead Son He Resembles

The home of a wealthy silk dyer and such advantages as a college education were ready for a 13-year-old orphan boy from Omaha, Neb., in what seemed like a modern version of the old story of Cinderella and the prince.

The boy was Peter Christopholis, and inmate of Father Finnegan's Boys' Home near Omaha. A picture of the lad, an orphan since early childhood, was the medium through which he has become just like a son in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Strengs, who live at Peterson, N.J.

It seems that Strengs saw the picture of Peter and was struck by the resemblance of his son, Henry, who was drowned in a boat race on N.J., a little over a year ago. As a result, arrangements were made to bring Peter in the Strengs household to take the place of the dead boy.

Farming On Small Scale

Has Proved Best During These Times Of Depression

Large-scale farming it is worth noting, is no longer being advanced as a cure-all for agricultural ills. It is not so many months since farmers were being told that agricultural salvation could only be attained by mass production on very large farms, and that small farmers were being crowded out. The small farmers would lose their individuality and become something approaching serfs. But the depression has changed all that, as it has changed many other things. The small farmer is managing to get along in some way or other, but the large farmers have gone broke or shut up shop.—Brookview Recorder and Times.

Prairie Wheat Sales Higher

Show Substantial Increase Over Corresponding Period In 1932

Prairie wheat marketings showed an increase of 2,657,379 bushels over the corresponding period last year for the week ending June 23, according to Dominion Government figures released this week.

Total marketings for the crop year to date were 33,742,219 bushels as compared with 29,022,190 a year ago. For Saskatchewan the year's sales were 150,485,507 as compared with 115,863,839.

Still Very Much Alive

Sir Murchison Fletcher, High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, who has been visiting London, went to Tonga Island last September to present the Queen with the D.B.E., conferred upon her by King George. He was met on the beach by a tortoise which Captain Cook gave to the Queen's great-grandfather in 1773. Sir Murchison stated that the tortoise is very much alive and that he fed it with bananas.

More Aeroplane Passengers

Business Increasing On U.S. Lines and Competition Is Keen

The skyways of North America are being "double tracked." A survey of major air lines carrying passengers to every corner of America—and one of them planning to extend across the ocean—showed that commercial aviation has increased its passenger income by one-third in recent weeks.

The reason: Renewed activity in general business and loss of what aviation men call "air anxiety" by the public.

The result: A battle for the new business comparable to that of the railroads several decades ago.

In the scramble for passengers, millions of dollars have been poured into new equipment. Soundproof cabins have been evolved by United Air Lines. American Airways has responded with ships in which passengers can sleep on comfortable berths during night trips between Chicago and the Pacific Coast.

A smaller line, Northwest Airways, has ordered a fleet of "planes capable of 215 miles an hour with a cruising speed of 180 and announced a plan to compete for business between Chicago and the Pacific northwest.

At the coast, Northwest will connect with Pan American Airways, which plan to extend its present lines to Alaska across the Arctic to Asia. At present, Northwest operates between Chicago and Montana and northward to Winnipeg, Man.

As proof of increasing business the Chicago municipal airport announced that 9,827 passengers were carried out of Chicago on regularly scheduled trips during June, an increase of 100 per cent, from a year ago.

Many licensed pilots have obtained employment in the past few months, air line officials announced, because of additional "planes" placed on schedules.

Trips between Chicago and New York have been doubled by three lines. A traveller between the two cities now has a choice of more than 20 "planes" daily, the time of the schedules ranging upward from four and three-quarter hours eastbound to five and one half hours westbound.

Recovery Program

Plans Formulated In United States To Assist Workmen

With almost 1,000,000 mill workers tackling their jobs under the stimulus of higher pay, plans were fashioned by the United States industrial administration for summing the whole force of public opinion behind the Rooseveltian endeavor to open more jobs and fill additional salary envelopes.

Hugh S. Johnson, industrial administrator, called in his staff of advisors to check over every detail of the preparations for a campaign modelled after the Liberty Loan drives of the Great War days to unite the citizenry behind the recovery efforts. Secrecy surrounded the formulation of the plans.

A national campaign now in the making would seek even more informal, purely voluntary wage-raising efforts. The action, along the lines of that taken by the steel industry in increasing wages 15 per cent today, without waiting for an executive order by the president.

A strong appeal from President himself might prove the centre of the movement. It still was considered possible that he might, in this, recommend general hour limits, and advise what minimum wage levels should be.

Located Lost Galleons

Pirate Loot Within Grasp Of An English Adventurer

Treasure buried long ago by pirates who had stolen in raids on merchantmen is believed to be within the grasp of an expedition led by Stratford D. Jolly, an English adventurer, who, with his party, set out from Brixham more than a year ago in a converted steam trawler. At least, Jolly believes the treasure is within reach. He has returned to England for a short time, but will continue the search in another vessel the trawler having been sold.

One of their party, Frank Cooper, who gave up a post in the government manufacturing industry at Yeovil to join the expedition as gold diver, was able to locate at Trinidad a number of sunken Spanish galleons, which were scuttled in 1797 to avoid capture by the British fleet, according to Jolly's story.

Finding the galleons, he said, was as easy as could be for Cooper, who used for the purpose only a gramophone spring. "That Cooper's work was successful we know," said Mr. Jolly, "because we took soundings and were able to trace the actual shape of the sunken ships. They are down in only seven fathoms of water—a depth easy for divers to work in—and, above all, they are in a very sheltered part."

Wanted To Look Around

Prince George Climbed 180-Foot Scaffolding Beside "Big Ben"

Prince George demonstrated remarkable nerve before a small crowd of people when he climbed up the web-like scaffolding surrounding Big Ben's tower at the House of Commons. No one looking on knew who the "human fly" was. To them it was simply a young man in a gray suit.

The prince had expressed a desire to climb up the ladders from platform to platform until he reached Big Ben and have "a good look around." Accompanied by two of the men engaged on the scaffolding work, he reached the highest point. After a few minutes he climbed over a parapet leading to the gallery where the bells that chime the quarters are installed. The prince ascended by means of a long spiral staircase inside the tower.

"Climbing the ladders to such a height is not an easy job for one not accustomed to the work," an official told a reporter. "But the prince got up very quickly, and showed fine nerve. He told us that he thoroughly enjoyed the experience." During the 180 feet ascent the prince had to climb up steep ladders from which, when glancing down, he could see nothing between himself and the ground. In many places the scaffolding upon which he had to walk consisted only of a couple of planks.

Russia's New Fast Train

With a new idea for locomotives, S. S. Valdner, an official scientist of the Russian transport commissariat, has invented an exceedingly fast railway train which is called the "aero-train." The prefix "aero" is a trifle misleading, because the locomotive does not fly, but the term is intended to describe the engine as of the aeroplane type, with propellers. It is stated that the train is stable at a speed of more than 150 miles an hour.

Nineteen Year Old Girl Was Brilliant Scholar In London

Among those to pass the examination for call to the English Bar, Miss Avaridia Mehta, of Colombo, Ceylon.

Miss Mehta is only 19 years old, a slim Parsee girl from Ceylon, whose appearance would give the impression that her school days were hardly over yet. She was a brilliant scholar at the Maria Grey Training College, London, England, and after she matriculated she read for the Bar in Lincoln's Inn.

I saw her at her home in Hampstead, where she is living with her mother—writes an Evening News representative. She was wearing a native dress of blue and gold.

"I shall be the first woman barrister in Ceylon," she said. "There are, of course, a number of women lawyers in India, but up to now there have been none in my own country."

"I am eager to begin work at the Bar in Ceylon, but I have to wait some time yet before I can do that. I cannot be called until I am 21, and I have to eat my dinner for three more terms. I may go to India first and practice there for a time before going to Colombo."

Miss Mehta said there was no branch of the law in which she took especial interest and her practice would be a general one. Her father is a marine superintendent at Colombo, and one of the few Parsees in Ceylon. "There are only 200 there," she said, "but there are 100,000 in India."

Matter Being Considered

Train Ferry May Be Inaugurated Between England and Sweden

A train ferry between Sweden and Britain may be inaugurated, if present plans materialize. A minimum capital of one-half million kronor already has been subscribed, due to the confidence with which the project is regarded in Britain.

Drawings for the ferry have been made and the boat is estimated to cost 3,500,000 kronor and have room for 54 refrigerator cars, 10 freight cars and 430 first-class passengers. The Swedish terminal will be Varberg.

It has been suggested that during the summer months the ferry make an intermediate stop at Copenhagen.

Hardly Necessary

With the nations feeling the way they do about each other, what need is there for trains that go 110 miles an hour and airplanes that go 350 miles an hour? It must be that we are perfecting communications in order to get away from each other as fast as we can.

The production of potatoes in Canada in 1932 amounted to 39,416,000 cwt, the smallest yield recorded since 1916.

POLICE QUELL WINNIPEG RIOT WITH TEAR GAS

Winnipeg, Man.—About 1,000 unemployed demonstrators, bent on airing their grievances over closing of the outpatient department of the Winnipeg General Hospital, stormed the city hall here Thursday in an attempt to interview the civic unemployment relief committee and police reserves were called out to quell the disturbance.

Charging the yelling and milling demonstrators with tear gas bombs, the policemen broke up the demonstration at the rear of the city hall, but the demonstrators quickly ran to the front of the building on Main Street, Winnipeg's main thoroughfare, where they demanded an audience with the civic unemployment relief officials.

Extra police reserves were called out, bringing the number of officers to 120. The mob was slowly edged down Main Street, to a small lane, where they obtained bricks and stones and pelted the officers.

Several officers were struck by flying missiles, but none was seriously injured. Constable A. Bond was taken to police headquarters with a cut on the head and Constable A. Singleton was removed suffering from effects of the tear gas bombs.

All traffic on Main Street was blocked. Police were forced to bring their batons into play when several hundred of the more radical demonstrators charged down a back alley in an attempt to storm the police station. A cordon of policemen was thrown across Main Street and the demonstrators staggered blindly about in the gas, subdued and temporarily broken up.

Police revealed they had taken six men into custody.

Visiting Western Provinces

Trip Of Dominion Liberal Leader To Last Five Weeks

Ottawa, Ont.—On the first stage of a western trip which will occupy five weeks and probably take him to all three prairie provinces, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Dominion Liberal leader, left Ottawa July 19.

The Liberal leader may visit the World Grain Exhibition at Regina. He will go to his own constituency of Prince Albert for a couple of weeks.

Mr. King may also visit the constituency of Mackenzie, Sask., where a by-election to fill the seat vacated by the appointment of Mr. N. Campbell to the tariff board is to take place.

No Stabilization Plan

No Action Yet Taken With U.S. Dollar Or With Sterling

Ottawa, Ont.—No action is being taken with the United States dollar or with the sterling. Accordingly the Canadian dollar cannot be said to be definitely linked up with either. This was the explanation given here when the discussion over empire currencies in the British House was referred to government officials.

Leslie Hore-Belisha, financial secretary to the treasury, told the British House that no fresh proposals were under consideration for the stabilization of empire currencies.

Trade With Russia

Great Britain Looking For Greatly Increased Exports

London, Eng.—With an Anglo-Russian economic warfare ended as a result of negotiations between Maxim Litvinov, Soviet Foreign Commissioner, and Sir John Simon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Great Britain is looking forward to a greatly increased trade with the Soviet Union, officials said.

Steady progress is being made towards a new trade pact to supplant the one scrapped at the beginning of the economic troubles, which reached dramatic heights with the trial of six British electrical engineers on charges of sabotage and bribery in Moscow.

Products such as timber and a good outlet in Great Britain, and the new trade pact will facilitate such business.

The projected accord also will enable Great Britain to exert more pressure on the Soviet Union for a correction of Britain's unfavorable balance of trade.

Any increase the British will gain in the Russian markets will be mainly at the expense of Germany, where half of all the Russian purchases abroad have been placed.

Manitoba Crops

Drouth and Hoppers Reduce Yield In Many Sections

Winnipeg, Man.—Varied crop prospects in Manitoba, ranging from excellent in the area north of Riding Mountain to poor in the extreme southwestern corner, are reported in the summary issued by the Manitoba department of agriculture.

Absence of adequate rain and grasshopper damage continue as outstanding factors. Rain has been insufficient for seven weeks. A considerable section of the Red River Valley and a strip across southern Manitoba near the Dakota boundary are now infested with full-grown, flying hoppers, says the report.

Rather than chance loss through drouth and hoppers, some farmers are cutting their crop for green feed.

Conversion Loan Plan

Great Britain Is Seeking To Convert War Loan

London, Eng.—Great Britain, seeking to convert 5½ per cent war loan bonds to convert in the United States in 1917 into 2½ per cent sterling bonds, asked the American holders to accept abrogation of the bonds' gold clause.

As an inducement an offer was made of conversion of each old 5½ per cent $1,000 bond into a sterling bond of $200—that is, at the rate of $3.84 against the parity of $4.86 which the United States dollar and pound exchange rate touched Wednesday.

The bonds were floated just before America entered the Great War in 1917.

British Empire Conference

Advances Proposal For Empire To Discuss Its Own Affairs

Melbourne, Australia.—Australia joined in the expressions heard elsewhere, official and unofficial to the effect the empire should hold its own conference if the World Economic Conference proves a failure.

Addressing a gathering of ex-servicemen here Hon. H. G. Latham, Attorney-General in the Commonwealth Government, declared: "If the World Economic Conference fails I earnestly hope an attempt will be made to hold a British Empire conference at which empire affairs may be placed upon a co-ordinated and co-operative basis."

Sunken Continent

Submerged Continent In Pacific Twice The Width Of America

San Diego, Cal.—Captain C. B. Mayo, who as captain of the naval tanker "Ramona" plying between San Pedro and Manila made an extensive study of the ocean bottom, said he had mapped a submerged continent in the Pacific twice the width of America. Last May Captain Mayo discovered a new deep with the sonic depth finder off the coast of Japan, where the bottom fell away to 5,501 fathoms. It was one of the greatest ocean trenches ever discovered.

WHEAT GROWING NATIONS REACH AN AGREEMENT

London, Eng.—Henry Morgenstau, United States wheat negotiator, announced that the "Big Four" wheat producing nations had reached an agreement with Danubian countries providing for restriction of exports from the Danube area to 54,000,000 bushels this year and 50,000,000 next.

As regards the agreement with the Danubian states, assent was given on the part of Australian and Argentine experts for their countries, and final approval awaited the decision of the chiefs of the delegations.

There was reason to believe that an arrangement would be made with the Russian delegation fixing the Soviet export at 75,000,000 bushels. The accord is held to be of the highest importance, since it represents the keystone of provision set up by Australian delegates to participation in an acreage restriction scheme, which is considered necessary to use up the large existing wheat surplus in order to raise prices.

Negotiations for an agreement regarding reduction of the world wheat acreage and exports have been in progress during the World Economic Conference here by spokesmen of Canada, the United States, Australia and Argentina.

The "Big Four" representatives went directly from a meeting with delegates from four Danubian countries—Hungary, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria—to a session with Russian spokesmen.

The Danubians had first been asked to limit exports this year to 40,000,000 bushels and then conceded a volume of 45,000,000 bushels.

Upon representations, however, that this year's crop in those countries is likely to be very large, they conceded a quota of 54,000,000 bushels, providing that next year's amount will be limited to 50,000,000 bushels.

Canadian Business Important

United States Pleaded To Note Recovery Of Canada

New York.—Commenting on the "evidence of wide-spread improvement of business in Canada," the New York Times says:

"That these gains have been made without any plan deliberately to depreciate the Canadian dollar offers further proof of the strength of natural forces now tending to promote recovery."

The Times also notes: "The evidence of Canadian improvement is of special interest to the United States, inasmuch as more American capital is invested in Canada than in any other foreign country, and Canadian markets are second in importance only to those of the United Kingdom as an outlet for American goods."

Assistance Given Manitoba

Says Province Should Make Own Arrangements For Financing

Winnipeg, Man.—Apart from the financial assistance rendered Saskatchewan in respect of areas in which there was a three-year crop failure, the Dominion Government has helped the province of Manitoba more than any other province, according to a statement issued by Hon. T. G. Murphy, Minister of the Interior, here.

The statement detailed financial aid given Manitoba and claimed in view of the assistance rendered in connection with other responsibilities, it was incumbent on the Manitoba Government to make its own arrangements for financing direct unemployment relief.

Churchill.—After nearly a week in the ice floes of Hudson Bay, the motor schooner "Fort Severn," Hudson's Bay Company, with Capt. D. O. Morris in command, docked here July 18. When soon after arriving here, Hugh Conn, district manager, said there had been no suffering. "The 'Fort Severn' had been caught in the drifting ice. When the wind was favorable the sails were raised and the ship moved slowly through the ice. A cargo of furs from the post at York Factory was unloaded. The ship loaded supplies for northern trading posts and sailed for Cape Ekimik.

C.C.F. MANIFESTO DECLARES WAR ON CAPITALISM

Regina, Sask.—What the Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation seeks for its new Dominion of Canada and how it aims to achieve its reforms is now before the public.

In a 4,000-word manifesto, issued on the opening of the first national convention of the organization here, the C.C.F. disclosed its program for a national planning commission to guide the nation in its transition, boards of management for control of public utilities and other social enterprises, and set forth the changes desired.

Under the new regime which the organization hopes to establish after the next federal election, when it will seek government power, banking and insurance would become socialized and gradually socialization would be extended to industry. First of the industries to come under public control would be transportation, communication and electric power production, to be followed by mining, pulp and paper, distribution of milk, bread, coal and gasoline. New policies for foreign trade and external affairs would be established and the system of taxation would be radically altered.

Throughout it all was sounded war on capitalism with the declaration "No C.C.F. government will rest content until it has eradicated capitalism."

"In the type of economy that we envisage," declared the manifesto, "the need for taxation, as we now understand it, will have largely disappeared. It will nevertheless be essential, during the transition period, to use the taxing powers along with other methods, as a means for providing for the socialization of industry and for extending the benefits of increased social services."

"At the present time capitalist governments in Canada raise a large proportion of their revenues from such levies as customs duties and sales taxes, the main burden of which falls upon the masses. In place of such taxes upon articles of general consumption, we propose a drastic extension of income, corporation and inheritance taxes, steeply graduated according to ability to pay. Full publicity must be given to income tax payments and our tax collection system must be brought up to the English standard of efficiency."

"We also believe in the necessity for an immediate revision of the basis of Dominion and provincial sources of revenues, so as to produce a co-ordinated and equitable system of taxation throughout Canada."

The manifesto assailed the "debt creating character" of present-day government financing. "The C.C.F. proposes" it said, "that in future no public financing shall be permitted which facilitates the perpetuation of the parasitic interest-bearing class; that capital shall be provided through the medium of a national investment board and free from perpetual interest charges."

EMPIRE PARLEY SLATED TO BE HELD IN LONDON

London, Eng.—"A little imperial economic conference" is going to be held at London as soon as the world economic conference is adjourned.

But from all indications all those sources that have been clamoring for an empire economic parity to take the place of the world conference, are going to be disappointed. On authoritative information it is learned the empire parley will concern itself only with ways and means of smoothing out the complaints that have arisen in various quarters from the working out of the Ottawa Imperial Conference trade pacts.

And these complaints will largely hinge on the widely-publicized unrest among British agriculturalists at a declining market they attribute to floods of agricultural produce coming in from the Dominions under the Ottawa pacts.

Whether the conference between representatives of the United Kingdom and empire governments will seek to arrive at any agreement on empire currencies, or any further steps towards empire economic co-operation at large, is doubtful. Voluntary agreements—and the "voluntary" is stressed to remove the existing complaints, are said to be the sole aim of the empire meeting.

Plan To Recover Bulion From Sunken Lusitania

Chicago.—A plan to salvage the treasure reputedly on the liner "Lusitania," sunk by a German U-boat during the war, was revealed by Charles Courtney, president of the American Association of Master Locksmiths.

Courtney, who is en route to Cleveland, said work will begin in the Lincoln on the ocean off the Irish coast, as soon as weather conditions are favorable.

Although the ship's manifest, published shortly after she sank, listed no gold, the amount of metal aboard has been variously estimated from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, Courtney said.

PREMIER BROWNLEE'S STATEMENT TO DRUMHELLER UNEMPLOYED

The following communication has been received by Andy King, former president of the Workers' Central Council of the unemployed, and will no doubt be of interest to the unemployed throughout this district:

Edmonton, July 17, 1933.

Dear Mr. King:— I regret that unexpected demands upon my time have made it impossible for me, until today, to give further consideration to your representations to me at Drumheller and that this letter is therefore somewhat delayed.

After giving the most careful consideration to the representations of your associates and myself, I can only confirm what I intimated to you orally would be the position of the government. This is as follows:

(1) The government has endeavored to give the most sympathetic consideration to the citizens of the Drumheller Valley in its general scheme of Provincial Relief. The scale of relief recently adopted constitutes a very substantial increase over that which had previously been in operation and is in excess of the scale, which, on more than one occasion, was acknowledged to be adequate by individuals interested in unemployment relief in that area. The Government cannot, therefore, now see its way clear to grant any further increase.

(2) The scheme of purchasing recently organized was only intended to be supplementary to the increased scale of relief and it was not the intention to absolutely guarantee that it would increase the purchasing power by any certain or fixed amount. In any event, the government is clearly of the opinion, from information we have received, that it has so far had a fair chance to demonstrate its effectiveness and with due respect to yourself and your associates the government is of the opinion that the extent to which the average purchasing power of the dollar will be increased among the unemployed in Drumheller Valley will not be determined until it has been in operation for a considerably longer period.

(3) Considerable emphasis was placed by your delegation on the request that a portion of the relief be paid in cash. As stated at meeting, such a policy could not be put into effect in any one locality in the Province but must be considered as part of the general scheme. Should the government, in its further study of the whole relief question, decide that any portion of relief throughout the Province will be paid in cash, such policy will of course at once be put into effect in Drumheller.

(4) A number of individual complaints were raised at the meeting with reference to specific instances where it appeared that applicants for relief were not being given full consideration. I believe the department has been working on these complaints and I am sure that our relief officials of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, will deal with each of these complaints as reasonably as possible according to their merits.

In conclusion, as I stated to you in Drumheller, I feel the present strike has been called without due regard to the position of the government and the efforts we have made to be fair and reasonable in the administration of relief in the Valley. I trust your associates and yourself will realize the desirability of co-operating with the government to the fullest extent and that the men will at once return to work. Instructions have been given to the Police to issue relief on and after the first of August to those who have substantially worked out their relief for month of July. If the men return to work promptly every effort will be made to see that this is done on an equitable basis.

As stated in Drumheller, I am placing the position of the government in writing, so that there can now be no possible misunderstanding, as the government would greatly regret if direct relief had to be discontinued.

ABSOLUTELY SCRIPTURAL

Never send articles for publication without giving the name, for the name often secures publication of a worthless article.

Thou shouldst not rap at the door of a printing office, for he that heareth thee rap aneth in his sleeve and loatheth thee.

Thou shouldst never read copy on the linotype or sharp and hooked container thereon, or the operator may knock you down.

Never enquire of the editor the news, for behold it is his business to give it to thee at the appointed time, without asking for it.

It is not right that thou shouldst ask him who is the author of an article, for it is his duty to keep such things to himself.

When thou dost enter the office, take heed of thyself that thou dost not look at what may concern thee, nor, for that is not met in the sight of good breeding. Neither examine thou the proof sheet, for it is not ready to meet thine eye that thou mayest understand.

Read thine own town paper, and if thou hast not already done so, subscribe for it immediately. Pay for it in advance, and it will be well with thee and thine.

POLICE SHOW COURTESY

A high percentage of unintentional traffic law violations are penalized inevitably under the present system. Police in Saint John, N.B., however, seem to have evolved an excellent plan of separating the sheep from the goats. For strangers and others who violate minor traffic laws the first time, a courtesy windshield sticker has been issued by the chief of police. This procedure has won much respect and commendation, especially from tourists. The sticker, signed by the police constable is a printed slip reading something like this: "You have unintentionally violated the traffic laws of this city by parking longer than allowed by law. We know this will not occur again. Thank you."

During the engagement at the taking of We Hai Wee in North China, at which a kilted regiment participated, the following conversation took place between Dougal and Sandy:

Dougal, meeting Sandy, exclaimed: "We have taken We Hai Wee!" Sandy says: "He's we!" Dougal: "Aye, we have."

A Chinaman, standing by, says: "He's savvy Chinese quickies!"

On August 1st by reason of the continuance of the present strike.

Yours very truly,

J. E. BROWNLEE

As a result of Premier Brownlee's letter and the manner in which it was received by the unemployed Andy King resigned the presidency of the council, charging that communistic influences had undermined the operation of the council. Other members of the executive also resigned.

HOW UNEMPLOYED CAMP NEAR COLEMAN IS ORGANIZED

COLEMAN, July 24.—A visit to the relief camp west of Coleman, organized under the Department of National Defence, for single unemployed men, is of interest in view of the criticisms made from time to time of this method of alleviating unemployment.

The building of airports does not compete with any class of labor skilled or unskilled. It is work created by the necessity of providing for those whom industry cannot absorb under existing conditions. The organization of the Department of National Defence, with its trained personnel, is more capable of undertaking this work than any temporary organization which might be formed to deal with emergency measures.

This camp, one of nearly 50 across Canada, will provide employment for 100 men, with an additional staff of nine men. Transportation to the camp is paid by the government, no matter if a man travels 200 or 20 miles, and if he finds he can secure a job which pays him better than remaining in camp, his transportation is paid back to the point where he will work.

On his arrival he is medically examined, and if declared fit, admitted to camp. He is issued clothing, two pairs of trousers, four pairs of socks, one cap, two shirts, one pair of strong working boots, towels, soap, razor, shaving brush and toothbrush, a winter overcoat if he remains, one sweater, two blankets, and three if climate makes necessary.

Each man is provided with a specially constructed cot, mattress and pillow. A bath house, with hot and cold water, the purest of water from a spring on the camp site, provided for the cleanliness of the camp, and every person, for sanitation is made in accordance with public health rules. Free medical attendance and hospital attendance is provided. A packet of tobacco is issued twice weekly, and spending money amounting to from $5.00 to $5.50 per month is given.

The men are not worked hard, as the gang bosses and the camp foremen are chosen for their work because of their knowledge and tact in dealing with large groups of men. The general experience across Canada is that the men in these camps work contentedly and appreciate the efforts made to provide them with useful work, restoring their self respect instead of having to beg their way across the country.

Three good meals per day are prepared by experienced cooks, and a camp barber is appointed, so that no cost is charged against the men for cutting hair.

The camp accommodation consists of floored tents, with six cots in each, a large frame building for kitchen and dining room, a frame building for stores and offices, and a bath house. Telephone connection is made with the nearest point, and camp supplies are brought in daily, such as fresh meat, vegetables, groceries and other daily necessities. Most of the men gain weight after being in camp for some days, the healthy occupation and good accommodation tending to increase their morale.

Coleman camp-site is located alongside the Crow's Nest river, about nine miles from the summit of the mountain divide, within easy walking distance of three miles from town.

The general feeling of the men in camp may best be expressed by the fellow who during the war dropped with several others into a shell hole where they were sheltered from the enemy's bombardment. He began to criticize their emergency refuge, when another turned on him, and said: "If you know of a better 'ole, go to it!"—Coleman Correspondent to Lethbridge Herald.

Press despatches on Friday last made mention of the International Peace picnic being held near Turtle Mountain.

WORTH SAVING FOR

To the traveller, Canada offers endless variety and the person who saves in order to explore it has a worthwhile objective. The most effective method of saving money is to follow a definite plan of deposits in a Savings Account at regular intervals.

Nothing makes a fool grow like flattery.

There was a young man named Sensitive,
Who was awfully fond of his beer.
One morning at eight
He slept at his gate
And some folks think it is queer.

Among the train passengers were an elderly Highlander and a young lad. The former was holding his watch in his hand, studying it with intense interest. Suddenly he seemed satisfied and beckoned the conductor to him.

"What is it?" the latter asked. "I want to pay the rest of my grandson's fare," replied the Highlander, "he has just become 12 years old."

A clergyman was annoyed by people talking and giggling during the service. He paused, looked at the dustbuns, and said: "Some years since, as I was preaching, a young man who sat before me was constantly laughing, talking and making uncouth grimaces. I paused and administered a severe rebuke. After the close of the service a gentleman said to me: 'Sir, you made a great mistake; that young man is an idiot.' Since then I have always been afraid to reproach those who misbehave in chapel lest I should repeat that mistake and reproach another idiot." During the rest of the service there was good order.

Sangster went to the local chemist for advice. "Mon, I've an awful cold," he said. "Ha'e ye a guid cure for it?"

"Yes," replied Gordon, "I have a sovereign cure." Sangster backed slowly towards the door. "Hoots awa' wi' ye, mon!" he said. "D'ye no' keep an about fowerpence?"

In his plain, yet forceful way, he spoke in a convincing manner, driving home his possibilities and pointing out to the people the benefits they would derive were we to adopt the Douglas system. In spite of the fact that this meeting was poorly advertised, there was a satisfactory turnout. Through interest arising out of the meeting, on the Saturday evening following a meeting was held, when the Cowley branch of the Douglas system was organized, with officers as follows: H. C. Morrison, president; W. Fortier, vice-president, and M. A. Murphy, secretary-treasurer. Several have already joined the group and paid the membership fee of one dollar, which will be used to further the cause. The Cowley branch hopes to get in touch with every adjacent school district, by either sending out or appointing local speakers to explain the system. Literature will be on hand for distribution.

The Saskatchewan Department of Natural Resources will liberate about 2,000 nine-week-old pheasants throughout the province of Saskatchewan during the coming summer. The birds are being held in captivity at Moose Jaw prior to liberation.

Despite a somewhat later season this year, crop conditions throughout the Prairie Provinces provide cause for optimism in the opinion of J. M. McKay, general agricultural agent, Canadian Pacific Railway. He based his view on improved moisture conditions and generous growth everywhere, which at some points was the best since 1928.

Completing a seasonally successful visit to Canada and the United States lasting several months, the Oxford Group sailed recently aboard the Empress of Australia for England under the leadership of Rev. H. Allen Viney. Their Canadian visit terminated with a house party at the Chateau Frontenac at which 500 members were present.

The death at Vancouver recently of F. W. Peters, former general manager of the British Columbia Pacific Railway, severed one of the last remaining links of the old line with the pioneering railroad days of the early seventies. His service was carried out nearly 52 years. He was born in Saint John, March 25, 1860.

Grant Hall, senior vice-president, Canadian Pacific Railway, has from three-weeks' inspection trip that took him to the Pacific Coast, stated that he had seen and heard much of an encouraging character during his trip and nothing of a contrary nature. He added that there was distinct revival of hope and restoration of confidence.

Farm management through the application of business principles, practical and theoretical knowledge and ordinary horse sense to farm problems is a necessity of the day of lowered prices. T. C. F. Hovart, manager Canada Colonization Association, told the Winnipeg Kiwanis at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, recently. The Association has extended its activities in Saskatchewan, where it now has 14 zone managers with 1344 farms of a total of 467,000 acres under supervision.

More than 300 scientists from 31 countries attended the fifth meeting of the Pacific Science Congress opened at the Empress Hotel, Victoria, June 14. The laboratory buildings have been completed and equipped during the year with funds provided by the Quebec Government. Dr. T. W. M. Bad Times Man-Made

Dr. Beaumont, English poet, wrote in the seventeenth century "If we would rightly scan, it's not the times are bad, but man." The comment is still correct. Measles are mostly man-made. After considerable delay the liner "Baltic," once a renowned floating palace of the Atlantic service, is being scrapped in the shipbreaking yards at Osaka, Japan. Letter Written In 1876 Offered Judgeship To Nova Scotia Senator

A letter in which Canada's second premier, Alexander Mackenzie, offered a judgeship to Senator William Miller of Arichat, N.S., in 1876, has been found and presented to the provincial archives.

Written in the premier's hand-writing, the letter reads: "My Dear Sir: We expect within a few days to make the several appointments to the county court in Nova Scotia as the local government desires to issue the proclamation provided for by the statute."

"I write to request you to allow me to submit your name to his excellency for the Cape Breton district."

"Mr. Blake left for England three weeks ago, or he would have communicated with you on the subject. I know, however, that your nomination will be entirely satisfactory to him, and I have every reason to believe that it will give general satisfaction in the district and in the province."

"I will feel greatly obliged by receiving your early answer, and remain, My Dear Sir, Yours Faithfully, A. Mackenzie."

Heavy Tourist Travel

Indications That Visitors To National Park Will Equal Peak Year Of 1929

Tourist travel in Canada's national parks this season has given indications of equalling in volume the peak year of 1929, according to information reaching Hon. T. G. Murphy, Minister of the Interior. The first day of July marked the opening of the season in most national parks, particularly in the Rocky Mountain region, and the number of visitors over the Dominion Day holiday is usually taken as an indication of what the season will produce.

At Banff national park in Alberta, all available accommodations were occupied on Dominion Day and many tourists slept in their cars it was reported.

These have been wonderful years for the type of young married people who are drawn closer by early struggle.

It's as simple as this. The nations must come to peace or go to pieces.

Not Human Nature

The shop assistant wrapped up the customer's parcel and deftly handed it to him.

"There you are, sir," he said, "and if the goods are not just to your liking we will cheerfully refund the cash."

Farmer Giles sniffed. "Don't ye tell me such a yarn, young man," he replied.

"Eh? What?" exclaimed the assistant, momentarily taken off his guard.

"Ye might gie me my money back," said the farmer, "but 'tain't human nature to be cheerful about it."

It is estimated that there are nearly 125,000 kinds of flowering plants.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JULY 30

GIDEON

Golden Text: "Jehovah is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" Psalm 27:1.

Lesson: Judges, Chapters 6-8.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 98:1-4.

Explanations and Comments

The Faint-Hearted Depart, verses 1-3.—Gideon and his band were to fight the Midianites under God's banner, and to God must be accorded the victory. Let them should boast of having themselves defeated the enemy; their numbers must be reduced. Gideon therefore directed all who were fearful to depart, and more than two-thirds of the warriors left the camp. Possibly the men who had braggart most of what they would do to the Midianites were the very ones who were afraid when they stood on the height and looked at the encampment of the enemy spread along the opposite side of the valley.

The Crusaders who were the boldest in the council-chamber were the first to cry, "Hauve qui peut" (Let him who can, save himself).

When God needs men for His work He chooses the hearts courageous. When the bugle sounds the martial note, some one has observed, there are many in the Church who suddenly remember an engagement that prevents their joining in the battle. The proportion of cowards at Gideon turned out to be two in three. Would it be as low in the moral battles of today?

The Force Reduced To Three Hundred, verses 4-8.—"The number of God's army looked well, but God took to audacity it; He quitted the figures, and a most savage added it was" (McNellie). Gideon brought his army to the water and there tested them further. All but three hundred "bowed down upon their knees to drink." The Hebrew for this is said to mean strictly to drink by putting the hands in the water, as, for example, a horse or an ox does. Three hundred of them carried the water to their mouths with their hands, "lapped it with their tongues, as a dog lappeth," and they were the men chosen to fight.

Russia Spoiled Plans Of Finnish Aviator

Flier Was Not Allowed To Go Up East Coast

Bronzed by sun and wind after 16,000 miles of flying which would have taken him more than half way around the world if it had not been for international complications, Captain Walno Bremer, young Finnish aviator, brought his monoplane to rest at the Ottawa air station. His Atlantic flight was cancelled.

Captain Bremer left Finland on May 1, intending to fly his small all-metal plane, which took him to Cape Town and back last year, around the world. After successfully navigating the route over Germany, Arabia, Persia, India and China, he finally arrived at Yokohama. From there he intended to fly to Vladivostok, in Siberia, and so on to Nome, Alaska. However, Russian officials refused to allow him to fly up the east coast so he was forced to ship his plane to San Francisco from whence he flew to Ottawa.

Chinese Buying 'Planes

Three thousand fighting aeroplanes will be placed in service in the next three years by the Chinese Nanking Government, General Chih Jon Chou, young commander-in-chief of aeroplanes, announces. General Chih said he was examining various types of planes in the United States.

If you print any more jokes against Scotsman I shall cease borrowing your paper," writes a man from Aberdeen.

Fine Piece Of Legislation

Special Permission Required To Carry Firearms In Canada

One of the finest pieces of legislation that have been passed in many years is now in force, and hereafter no one in Canada is permitted to carry firearms without special permission. We are fairly clear of the Southern European habit of carrying knives, but the very bad habit of carrying guns, revolvers and other forms of pistols, automatics, etc., has crept over from the United States and leads often to fatal results in quarrels which, were they properly confined to the good old British weapons of the past, would be comparatively harmless.

Foreigners from the less civilized parts of the world, seem to think that guns are necessary in Canada, but such is not the case, and most of us can go through life without carrying guns. They are not used in Britain except by imported American criminals, and the police do not need therefore to use them either.—Hamilton Herald.

Canadian Landscapes

Exhibition Of Water Colors Showing In England

London's gallery-goers are showing keen interest in an exhibition of water colors, many of Canadian scenes, being shown at the Graham Gallery in new Bond Street by Miss Elizabeth, who is a member of the Overseas League. Queen Mary is among those who have attended the show.

Miss Harper, great admirer of Canadian landscape, has painted scenes as far north as Hudson Bay and includes in the present exhibition pictures done at Windsor, N.S., Ottawa, the Rockies and as far west as Vancouver. Among her subjects are: "Mount Edith Cavell," "Mount Robson," "Great Trees, Stanley Park," "A Sunrise on Hudson Bay," "Moose Factory," and "Icebergs on the Moose River in Northern Ontario." "The Lions, Vancouver," "Grouse Mountain," "Lake Louise and Emerald Lake."

Capture in her strong water colors of Canada's brilliant atmosphere as well as the country's more sober moods occasioned much favorable comment. Her show contains also pictures painted in New York and in the West Indies.

An African Superstition

Natives Believe Babies Should Be Smoked Over Fire

One of the most peculiar tribal customs among natives of darkest Africa, is the superstition that a baby must be held over the smoke of a camp fire in order to make it "pure" and such a baby must not associate with one which was not "smoked" as an infant.

Such was the report of Miss Ruth C. Cowles, R.N., at Johannesburg, South Africa, a nurse of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. She is a native of New Britain, Conn., and her parents live in Alhambra, California.

"But we are gradually proving," Miss Cowles wrote, "that such superstitions are groundless, and that total, smoked or unsmoked, are safe in the hands of our native Christian nurses."

A Mystery

Safe Stolen Two Years Ago Is Found On Prairie

Believed to be the same safe stolen from Harnsworth, Sask. two years ago, a safe was "blown" on prairie land, near the Black Hawk mine at Blenfold, over the week-end, according to word reaching R.C.M.P. headquarters at Regina. There was nothing in the safe but papers.

During the two years elapsing since the Harnsworth safe was stolen, no trace of it was found. Mounted police are working on the theory that those responsible for the theft secreted the safe on the prairie near the Blenfold mine where it was found and "blown" by a second gang over the week-end.

Exhibit Draws Crowds

Canada's exhibit at the Century of Progress Exposition, Chicago, is drawing a daily attendance of approximately 15,000 persons, according to information reaching the Department of Trade and Commerce. This number represents about 15 per cent, of the total daily attendance at the exposition.

IRISH DELEGATE REPROVED BY CONFERENCE CHAIRMAN

A sensation was caused in the economic commission of the World Economic Conference when Hendryk Colijn, Dutch Prime Minister, as chairman of the commission stopped Joseph Connolly, Irish Delegate, from speaking. Mr. Connolly (above inset) was supporting the Soviet proposal for an economic treaty and began an attack on Great Britain's economic actions against the Irish Free State. Premier Colijn interrupted to advise Mr. Connolly not to stray from the subject under discussion and the Irish delegate sat down. Our main picture shows Premier Colijn indicated by arrow.

Approaching the last green, the match was level, and after helping the Jew to look for his ball, the Scotchman remarking that he would play on, finished the hole.
